Culture and Identity | Tau Aga Fakamotu mo e Tu Tonuhia he tagata

Niueans take pride in their many traditions and culture being handed down from generation to generation as a 'living entity'.

Some cultural traditions still observed today:

1. Haircutting and Ear Piercing Ceremony

The haircutting ceremony is a major event for a teenage boy when a long tail of hair that is kept since childhood is removed. Guests and families are invited to this special event followed by a large feast where each invitee contributes to a monetary fund that goes to the boy after the ceremony costs are paid for.

Girls get their ears pierced for the first time since birth usually by a representative from each side of the girl's parent family. The girl is adorned with gifts and well wishes for the future.

2. Arts and Crafts

Niue is well known for its exquisite bags and hats as seen on show days and at the local market place in Alofi. Niuean culture and craft are key components of our 'Taoga Niue' and mean everything to a Niuean.

3. Annual Village Show Day

In Niue, this is an annual event for each village and is a memorable experience of local and European cuisine, handicrafts and fun.

4. Takai

This is the day that everyone from each village decorates their vehicles or transport with fancy items. Horns/sirens are beeped as they go around the island giving out goodies especially lollies.
